Dear STEVEN D WILSON:

Each year, we review your escrow account to make sure the escrow portion of your scheduled mortgage payment covers your property taxes and/or insurance premiums. Increases or decreases in your annual taxes and/or insurance premiums may cause your mortgage payment amount to change. Here are the details of your most recent escrow account review.

Note: This notice is for informational purposes only and is being provided as a courtesy should you voluntarily decide to make any escrow shortage payment, if applicable. This notice should not be construed as an attempt to collect a debt or a demand for payment contrary to any protection you may have received pursuant to your bankruptcy case.

New escrow and mortgage payment amount
New payment effective date	Current	New payment ($)
July 01, 2014 ¹	payment ($)	Option 1	Option 2

1. If you use one of our automatic payment options, we will adjust your electronic withdrawal(s) to ensure your July 01, 2014 payment is made in full.

2. If your current payment includes an amount to cover a previous escrow shortage, this amount will be added. If your current payment includes an adjustment for extra funds you deposited to your escrow account, this amount will be deducted.

The escrow disclosure indicates a shortage of $747.47. We have spread this amount over the next 60 months and included it in the new payment amount. However, any voluntary decision to pay the shortage in full will reduce the payment to $723.99. If you voluntarily choose to pay this shortage in full now, please detach this coupon and mail it along with the check to the address that appears on this statement.

You may use either of the following options to restore your required account balance

Option 1: Pay the entire shortage now	Option 2: Pay the shortage over 60 months

Pay the entire escrow shortage amount of $747.47 using the shortage payment coupon and your new mortgage payment will be $723.99	Pay the escrow account shortage of $747.47 in 60 payments of $12.46 which we've included in your new payment amount of $736.45.
